- Represented a school district in connection with a dispute over how and where a public entity is required to deliver records in response to Right-to-Know requests. Taylor v. SAU #55, 170 N.H. 322 (2017).
- Represented a municipality at trial on the issue of how the charitable property tax exemption is applied to religious organizations that operate summer camps. Marist Brothers of New Hampshire v. Town of Effingham, 171 N.H. 305 (2018).
- Successfully defended a municipality in connection with a tax assessment dispute after the municipality discovered information to suggest the property was significantly undervalued; the matter is currently on appeal to the NH Supreme Court. Merrimack Premium Outlets v. Town of Merrimack.
- Patent Infringement Litigation– Currently defending a Maine company against allegations of patent infringement levied by a multinational corporation.
- Construction Litigation– Represented a school district in mediation in connection with a multi-million dollar construction claim against a former architect hired to design and build a school.

A former staff attorney in the New Hampshire Public Defender’s Office for five years, Demetrio handled hundreds of criminal cases each year and brings his trial-readiness to bear on his clients’ behalf in his civil litigation practice. He graduated from Michigan State University College of Law, magna cum laude, where he was one of only thirty-two students in the entering class admitted to the Geoffrey Fieger Trial Practice Institute.

In his free time, Demetrio enjoys being with his life partner and their dog and hedgehog. He also enjoys tinkering and making things – especially using microcontrollers and mini-computers – and riding his motorcycle, building with LEGO bricks, and playing basketball.
